Album: Clock Ticking
Track: Are You There Still
Song Lyrics

Tonight
A flash of dynamite
A roar of sonic flight
I see it burn
See our world burn

Tonight
He grips my hand in fright
He knows we're not alright
He sees it burn
See our world burn

Are you there still?
Are you there still/ Do you care still/ Care Still Tune in to me
See me pleading
Pleading/ Bleeding
As echoes erase me

I disappear
Heart has long gone
Emptied of its embraces
Family lost
In a moment gone wrong
Winter without their faces

Are you there still?
Do you care still/ Care still Night closes in
Angels roaming
Roaming/ Homing
Wings beckoning

And I wait for dawn to rise again
Over a grey horizon
Only it lies
Shrouded and still
Shadowed in crimson
I wait for love to fly again
Toward a distant heaven
Only it hurls itself against the glass
And tumbles, broken
Tonight
We smell our home ignite
We flee ashen white
We see it burn
See our world burn
Tonight
I hold him to me tight
I feel him lose his fight
I see him burn

Song Lyrics

See my world burn
Are you there still/ Care still

I close my eyes
To conjure his face
Seared into my darkness
But sirens and cries
Stymie my mind
No place left for quiet

Are you there still?
See me crying
Crying/ Dying
Please, come and take me
