

Rounou

Album: Clock Ticking
Track: Home Once Again
Song Lyrics

Waking
To a wasteland all around me
Seeping
Into every pore of my body

I had a dream that I'd be
Safe and free
In my home once again
I had a dream that they'd see
I'm still me
Holding onto what's left

I want to dance
Sing and play
Just the way
I remember before
Those days of sun
Where we cared
No one scared
What tomorrow would be

Now days roll on endlessly
Poverty crushing down on us all
So many gone suddenly
What could be
Hollowed out at the core

Now days roll on endlessly
Poverty crushing down on us all
So many gone suddenly
What could be
Hollowed out at the core

I had a dream that I'd be
Safe and free
In my home once again
I had a dream that they'd see
I'm still me
Holding onto what's left
I want to dance
Sing and play
Just the way
I remember before
Those days of sun
Where we cared
No one scared
What tomorrow would be

Days go on and on and on

Rounou

Album: Clock Ticking
Track: Home Once Again
Song Lyrics

I see you sitting in the shadows
The light is off
You're lonely and you're hungry, God knows
Building's quiet
No one else home
They all packed up and flew away
You had to stay
and now your thoughts roam
Reminiscing makes the time go
A waiting game
This life of yours
Dream of change
but you know
Wolves blend in with the sheep
You cannot trust nor go to sleep
You try and swim but it's too deep
Head in your hands
I see you weep

Now days roll on endlessly
Poverty crushing down on us all
And on

So many gone suddenly,
What could be
Hollowed out at the core
And on

Days go on and on and on and on

I had a dream that I'd be
Safe and free
In my home once again
I had a dream that they'd see
I'm still me
Holding onto what's left
I want to dance
Sing and play
Just the way
I remember before
Those days of sun
Where we cared
No one scared
What tomorrow would be

You go on and on and on